

Eighteen is pleased to present

New Work

A solo exhibition by Craig Costello

OPENING RECEPTION: FRIDAY JANUARY 17. 2020. TIME: 17.00 - 21.00

EXHIBITION PERIOD: JANUARY 18 – FEBRUARY 22. 2020

Minimalist, experimental, intellectual and primal. Black and white abstraction. Formal and yet technically avant-garde. Vibrant, refined, gestural - in and out of control. Arrested motion. Perfected through repetition, but never perfect. The work of Craig Costello is all about equilibrium. Surface, movement, paint, application and reaction.

Craig Costello, born 1971 in New York City, USA, lives and works in Brooklyn USA. Recent exhibitions include Beyond the Streets, New York, USA, 2019, Fundamentals, Rouen, France, 2019 and WHQ, agnès b Galerie Boutique, New York, USA, 2017. Costello is the founder, owner and operator of Krink, Inc. – innovating the finest inks, high quality paint markers and specialty artist equipment for interior and exterior use. Costello uses his own paints and tools - modified fire extinguishers, garden sprayers and shoe polish bottles - in his paintings, sculpture and large-scale, site-specific installations. He has exhibited in galleries and museums, including Palais de Tokyo, Les Abattoirs, Deitch Projects, and the Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles. Costello has created installations around the globe, including Tokyo, Paris, Seoul, Rome, and London.